“Todo lo que conocemos de África proviene de la literatura occidental”.

Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

"Si no hubiera nacido en Nigeria y si mi impresión de África procediera de imágenes populares también creería que África es un lugar de hermosos paisajes y animales e incomprensible gente que libra guerras sin sentido y muere de pobreza y sida; incapaces de hablar por sí mismos y esperando a ser salvados por un extranjero blanco y gentil".

"Esta única historia sobre África crea estereotipos y el problema con los estereotipos no es que sean falsos, sino que son incompletos".
